PROMINENT PATHOLOGIST SPEAKS AT UM

MISSOULA--

One of the world's top experts in the field of paleopathology will present a lecture and slide show at The University of Montana Friday morning.

Dr. Enrique Gerszten will discuss the "Paleopathology of Soft Tissue in South American Mummies" from 9 to 11 a.m. Friday, Aug. 8, in Social Science Building Room 344. The event is free and open to the public.

Gerszten is a professor on the autopsy pathology faculty in the Medical College of Virginia at Virginia Commonwealth University. He serves as vice chair of Pathology Education Programs and co-director of paleopathology research. He attended medical school at the University of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and completed his residency at the Medical College of Virginia.

Gerszten comes to campus at the invitation of Garry Kerr, visiting instructor in UM's Department of Anthropology.
